Please share any experiences from Sts. Philip and James School that you feel helped you in the furtherance of your higher education: I learned excellent study skills and was blessed with teachers who truly cared about their students and were there for their students even years after we had been in their classes (including those current teachers Mrs. Testa and Mr. Dunn). My teachers at SSPJ are now my greatest role models in my own teaching career.

Any personal information that you wish to share (family, business, etc...): Married in 2010 to Anthony Pierucci.
Live in southern California and am a resource specialist at my local elementary school and also teach reading methods classes at the University of La Verne as an adjunct professor.

Please email Mr. DiMenna at mdimenna@sspjschool.net to update this information at any time.
